Speaker Bio: Bill Blake

Bill Blake holds a Master's Degree from The London School of Economics and Political Science, with Honours of Merit and Distinction in the fields of Economics, International Finance, International Relations, and Political Science. In the 35 years since beginning his journey around the world, Bill furthered his education, traveled extensively, and lived in London and New York. Most of his work centered in providing stewardship to generations of wealthy families. Today, he owns and directs a Family Office based in Dallas-Fort Worth, serving families from fourteen states and five foreign countries. This work includes the management of cash and securities, privately-held business interests, real estate—and, of course, oil & gas investments. Bill is a member of the international Oil & Gas Investors Association. He is also the President of The Lincoln Society, one of the oldest organizations in Texas promoting economic freedom and liberty.
